He significantly increased my understanding of and interest in the subject. I know there is much more to learn, but I feel that I am coming away from the course with a lot of theoretical knowledge, practical tools, and confidence in working with addictions.	2/4/2024 3:07 PM

1	A lot of work.	2/18/2024 10:43 PM
2	I didn't love splitting into smaller groups to review the case study and would have preferred discussing the case study with the whole class each time. But I can also understand the purpose/hope/potential benefit of splitting into smaller groups.	2/18/2024 8:20 PM
3	Ideally, in the future, the course wouldn't come immediately on the heels of another intensive, and immediately before the following semester, due to pre-work and post-work for each class.	2/13/2024 11:04 PM
4	No	2/11/2024 1:03 AM
5	Assignment load, especially for an intensive class, was excessive. Suggestion would be for each reading to do chapter summaries OR a reflection paper, but not both.	2/10/2024 5:45 PM
6	None.	2/4/2024 12:21 AM
7	None	2/3/2024 10:51 AM

1	No, it was amazing.	2/18/2024 8:20 PM
2	No	2/11/2024 1:03 AM
3	No suggestions, I thought the course would structured perfectly, and I hope Dr. Henry is invited back next year to teach the course, again!	2/4/2024 3:07 PM
4	None.	2/4/2024 12:21 AM
5	We learned a lot of valuable information about addiction and helping addicts but it would have been helpful to spend more time also discussing how to help family and loved ones recover from and manage the pain and trauma of having an addict in their life.	2/3/2024 10:36 PM
6	None	2/3/2024 10:51 AM
7	Provide more support for students who are in the clinic, while taking an intensive course. Many students are on campus from 8 AM to 9 PM during intensives. This is unsustainable, and detrimental to the learning environment for students who are participating in the clinical experience.	2/1/2024 12:43 PM
8	Provide 1 sentence blurbs from the previous year on extra books so students can get a feel for what the suggested books are about.	1/31/2024 7:31 PM
